Robert S. Miller is a Partner in Lubin Olson's Business, Real Estate and Land Use Practice Groups, resident in the firm's Walnut Creek office. He represents business and individuals in all aspects of their real estate and related development business, including real property acquisitions and dispositions, entity formation, joint venture leasing, construction, financing, project development and entitlement. Mr. Miller has particular experience in the homebuilding industry and related transactions and represents numerous homebuilders and residential developers in his practice.

Prior to joining Lubin Olson, Mr. Miller was General Counsel of Braddock & Logan Services, Inc., a diversified real estate holding, development and home building company. In that capacity, he represented the company and its affiliates in connection with their management and operation of residential, commercial, retail and residential care facility properties, with a particular emphasis on the homebuilding industry. Mr. Miller also previously served as an associate at Orrick, Herrington & Sutcliffe in San Francisco, and Tomotsune, Kimura & Mitomi in Tokyo, Japan. Mr. Miller has been active in several community and legal organizations, including the California State Bar Real Property Law Section, the California Apartment Association, the Rental Housing Organization of Northern Alameda County, the East Bay Chapter of Amigos de las Americas, Congregation B'Nai Tikvah, and Family Support Services of Alameda County.

Mr. Miller has been honored by Thompson Reuters as a Northern California Super Lawyer in 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020. In addition, Mr. Miller is a frequent presenter on real estate issues and has had numerous publications on real estate topics. A number of his presentations and articles are listed below.
