Dave Shong is Of Counsel in Lubin Olson's Real Estate and Finance and Workouts Practice Groups. He specializes in the handling of commercial real estate and finance transactions, with particular expertise in leasing transactions.

Mr. Shong represents clients in a broad range of real estate transactions, including acquisition, construction and permanent financing, loan assumptions and modifications, acquisitions and divestitures, leasing, property management and development, joint venture formations, modifications and dissolutions, and foreclosures and other mortgage workouts. He also has extensive experience in loan participations and commercial finance transactions, including equipment financing and working capital lines of credit (including accounts receivable and inventory financing).

Before joining Lubin Olson, Mr. Shong practiced with Mayer Brown LLP in the San Francisco Bay Area and Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP in New York City. He also previously acted as Lending Counsel for RSF Social Finance, a nonprofit financial services organization based in San Francisco.
