Kimiko Akiya is an Associate in Lubin Olson’s Litigation and Construction Law Practice Groups. She specializes in construction disputes including disputes pertaining to multifamily, affordable housing and renewable energy projects.

Ms. Akiya represents project owners and contractors in claims involving defective design and construction, delay and differing site conditions, on multi-million-dollar projects in the San Francisco Bay Area and throughout the United States.

Prior to joining Lubin Olson, Ms. Akiya practiced at Bartko Zankel Bunzel Miller, in complex antitrust, class action, real estate, and contract disputes. She has extensive experience preparing and arguing motions, responding to discovery and preparing experts for trial and arbitration. Ms. Akiya is an active member of Queen’s Bench Bar Association. She joined Queen’s Bench Board of Directors in 2018 and is currently serving as Second Vice-President and co-chair of the Education Committee.
